THE ENTRANCE

Kept a Hundred Away From University, But Total is Larger Than Ever.

THE FACULTY STRENGTHENED

The Executive Committee Nominate Distinguished Men to Select Alumni Orator.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 2.— Dr. James Morris Page, Secretary of the General Alumni Ascopiation of the University of Virginia, issued to-day like third annual letter to the alumni, giving a brief outline of the work of the Association, and of the progress of Uniciation, and of the progress of ... University during the past year. From the letter the following extracts are taken: ciation, and of the progress of the certify during the past year. From the letter the following extracts are taken:

For several years the total attendance at the University has shown a healthy increase. In view of the fact that entrance examination were put into optration for the first time at the opening of the present session. It is peculiarly gratifying to be able to report that the present form coroliment in the University is the largest in the history of the institution. It is estimated that at least one hundred stuffies who would ordinarily, have entered, the University, were kept away by the entrance examinations. The total number of students carolled to March 20th was 721, which is an increase of 18 over the number for the whole of last session.

It is expected that in the immediate future the neademic faculty will be further strengthened by the following additions: a full professor of economics, an additional full professor of conomics, an adjunct professor of economic geology, and about eight instructors, and assistants, to be distributed between the schools suels in need of them.

The executive committee has nominated to the local associations, the following three gentlemen from whom to elect an alumni orator for June, 1907; Messrs, George Gordon Battle, of New York; Charles J. Faulkner, of Washington, and Bruce Haldeman, of Louisville. The local chapters will instruct their delegates to the meeting in June, 1906, as to their choice of these or of any other alumnus they may see fit to nominate, The orator elected for June, 1906, is the Rev. R. K. Massie, of Theological Seminary, Va.

Guards Posted at Alley Openings and He Runs Into Arms of Police.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 3.—Miss Lilian Barnes was choked and robbed of her purse by John Walker, a notorious negro thief, about 8:30 o'clock last night, near the corner of Sycamore and Washlington Streets, one of the most frequented sections of the city.
Miss Barnes was walking up Washington Street with her aunt on her way home from the Norfolk and Western Raliroad Station, and had reached the shed over an alley opening into the street behind the skating rink, when the negro ran up behind the ladies, and attempted to snatch Miss Barnes's purse,
but when she resisted and her aunt screamed, the man choked the struggling woman, selzed the purse and disappeared
in the dark alley only to run into the arms of Policeman Maitland McGhee,
